SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION 2022-2023

HOUSEHOLD INCOME: Please read the following instructions to make sure the form is filled out correctly.

TOTAL NUMBER OF PEOPLE LIVING IN YOUR HOUSEHOLD

A. Names: List the first and last names of every person living in your household. Everyone must be listed, whether they receive income or not. If no income is received, mark the no income box for that entry.

B. Gross YEARLY income: Following each person’s name, list each type of income received on a YEARLY basis.

- *Earnings from work: Includes gross income from work (wages, salaries, tips, commissions.) This is not the same as take-home pay; it is the amount earned before taxes and deductions. Gross earnings should be listed on your pay stub. If self-employed, you may report income after expenses (your own business, freelance work, farm, or rental property).
- *Welfare, child support, spousal maintenance: Includes TANF, General Assistance, General Relief, etc.
NOTE: Food Stamps and FDPIR benefits are not included as income.
- *Pensions, retirement, and social security: Includes Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Veteran’s (VA) benefits, and disability benefits.
- *All other income: Includes Worker’s Compensations, unemployment, strike benefits, net rental income, annuities, net royalties, interest, dividend income, income from estates, trust and/or investments, regular contributions from people who do not live in your household, and ANY OTHER INCOME. You do not have to include military or combat pay/allowances as income.
